Take in stunning views of the Perth skyline from the State War Memorial, honoring Western Australians who gave their lives in service of their country. Continue through exclusive neighborhoods and stop to watch the surfers at Cottesloe Beach before exploring the Victorian streets in Fremantle. A scenic cruise on the Swan River leads back to Perth, where you’ll check into your hotel and enjoy some free time before dinner.

Day 2

Relax on a 25-minute drive to the Swan Valley, where you’ll set out to discover Western Australia’s delicious and decadent flavors. Sample local chocolates and try a variety of nuts flavored with caramel, wasabi, abalone, and local spices. Visit the Mondo Nougat Factory for a scrumptious look at Italian-style nougat and stop at a few local vineyards to sample renowned Swan Valley wines. Afterwards, delve into native culture at the Maalinup Aboriginal Gallery, where you’ll also have the chance to sample customary bush food. Your tour wraps up with a tasting of local coffees. Return to the hotel and enjoy the rest of the day at your leisure.
